Josh Chandler Interviews Steve Hoffman, CEO of Rocketon.com- The One Year Catchup Show!

1 year on from my last interview with Steve Hoffman, that interview back in August of last year was conducted under very different circumstances mainly being that the company was in closed alpha, Rocketon.com has since been released to a public audience and has so far managed to garner 114,000 Rocketon.com members, you can see many of them actively roaming at the Rocketon.com site right now. It was great to see Steve and the team had done such amazing work, including the recent news that Rocketon signed up 6 partners to use Rocketon within their own site, my mind was buzzing with new exciting potential that I saw emerging from the Rocketon platform and something that has captivated from the moment it launched!
